

Aurora memorial walk to raise funds for young minority female pilots

Brock Weir, Local Journalism Initiative reporter

Jul 4, 2026 1:30 PM

| Supplied photo/Family of Savanna May Royes via GoFundMe

Listen to this article

00:02:16

The legacy of Savanna May Royes, a 20-year-old Aurora resident who lost her life in 2025 in Manitoba while training for her pilot's licence, will be furthered in a community walk tomorrow.

Savy's 5K Memorial Walk will take place Sunday, July 5, at Lambert Willson Park, directly behind the Aurora Family Leisure Complex on Industrial Parkway North, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Proceeds raised through the Memorial Walk will benefit the Savanna May Royes Aviation Safety Grant established by the family in their daughter's memory back in February.

"The event honours the vibrant life of Savy, who died tragically in a mid-air collision while pursuing her pilot's license in Manitoba last July," say organizers. "The event will raise funds for the Savanna May Royes Aviation Safety Grant, which empowers young, minority female pilots within the Urban Pilots Network."

Parents Tim and Loraine Royes came together with Urban Pilots Network (UPN) to establish the scholarship to support young women of colour within UPN with expenses related to their training, including costs to attend safety conferences, "empowering them to grow, learn, and pursue their aviation dreams safely."

"Savanna's passing deeply affected the Aurora community and surrounding areas with more than 800 people having attended her celebration of life," said the Royes family at the time of the scholarship's establishment. "A common theme among the speakers in attendance, including six of her Northern Lights Public School teachers, was Savanna's kindness, thoughtfulness, generosity, and the bright spirit she brought to everyone around her."

A GoFundMe page was established by the family shortly after Savanna lost her life in the July 8, accident in Steinbach, MB, with the expressed purpose of funding a scholarship in their daughter's name."

"After a month of searching for the right home for her scholarship, we knew it belonged with UPN, whose mission reflects everything Savanna believed in," said Tim in a statement. "Thanks to the generosity of so many people, more than $42,000 was raised."

Brock Weir is a federally funded Local Journalism Initiative reporter at the Auroran

Comments (0)

We welcome your feedback and encourage you to share your thoughts. We ask that you be respectful of others and their points of view, refrain from personal attacks and stay on topic. To learn about our commenting policies and how we moderate, please read our Community Guidelines.

If you would like to apply to become a Verified Commenter, please fill out this form.

Trending

4031	East Gwillimbury's $9.8M Health and Active Living Plaza Park opens tomorrow
3357	23-year policing veteran named deputy chief for York Regional Police
1585	Deal falls through for York Region's purchase of private apartments for affordable housing
1228	New directors named to Southlake hospital, foundation boards
1081	'I heard a bang': Homeowner targeted in roofing scam after storm

Have a story idea?

Report a mistake